

Hachinohe Living Guide (はちのへの暮らし方)

Citizen Collaboration Promotions Section
Hachinohe City

Welcome to Hachinohe! はちのへようこそ!

○The following living guide aims to provide basic information to help you settle in to Hachinohe.

The Guide includes the following topics:

- Vol. 1 How to open a bank account & use an ATM
- Vol. 2 How to separate your garbage
- Vol. 3 How to use the bus
- Vol. 4 How to obtain a driver's license
- Vol. 5 How to place an emergency phone call

(And additional information such as:)

- A Daily Life Support Portal For Foreign Nationals
- Information on the Immigration Services Agency
- Japan Multilingual Legal Support Center (called Houterasu)
- Information about the Consolation Counter for Foreigner Residents
- How to join the Foreigner Resident Volunteer Registry
- Useful phrases to use at the pharmacy
- Japanese Language Class in Hachinohe
- Don't forget to pay resident tax!
- Disaster prevention information for foreign residents

○For additional information about Hachinohe's Local Activities, Things to See, Tourism, Events, etc. please visit the following:

- Hachinohe Tourist Information Website: <https://visithachinohe.com/>
- Hachinohe City Foreign Residents Page: (Hachinohe City Hall Home Page):
<https://is.gd/e3HIC8>
- HIRA (Hachinohe International Relations Association) :
<http://hachinohe-hira.jp>

○There are also several useful pamphlets and maps located on the 1st floor of the Hachinohe City Hall Main building.